President's Message

I'll start this month with a "Thank you" to Cheryl Forcier for accepting the position of Vice President for next season. The position opened up when Dick Poole announced he was stepping down from the position for which he has held since September of 2003. Dick found himself filling in for me on many occasions when I was working in Florida and has attended almost all county and NHSA meetings with me while serving as VP. I can't thank you enough, Dick, for your friendship and your dedicated service to the club over these past five years (and then some) serving as chairperson for many events and always helping out with all the others! Thanks again, Dick, and enjoy your new (or should I say old) position as club member at future meetings.

Our May 3rd banquet at Traver's Eatery will start at 6:00 pm with cocktails followed by a short meeting/voting and dinner at 7:00pm. If you are not already on the guest list be sure to get in touch with Sally Raskett (SARAH.RASKETT@FMR.COM or 529-5813) and let her know "ASAP" you'll be attending and how many in your party. I hope you're able to attend!

Dave McGlaflin has completed all of the paper work for the state regarding our tax status! With any luck, we should be able to get started with alternative fundraising events very soon! We'll keep you posted as we go forward with this

(as always) and let you know when your help is needed with new fundraising events. Dave has spent countless hours on all the forms necessary for clarifying our tax status with the state. I would like to thank him once again for all he does as fundraiser for the club--a position that he is truly exceptional at! Thanks, Dave.

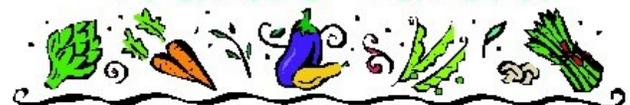

Enough for now! I hope you're able to make the banquet May 3rd and if not, have a wonderful summer and stay tuned for more info on the summer outing at the Lambert's. The original date of July 19th won't work and a new date isn't set yet!

Your President,
Albert Lambert

B.S. from Bill

Hi all,

In the final column from last year I wrote, "As the snow melts (HA HA just had to throw that in since there was never enough down this way to get the sleds out)..." Yet this year that is true. Just one week ago our family went hiking in Franconia Notch and there was still 1-2 feet of snow in places. Truly it was the best year of the last 3 (or 4). As for the Pot Luck, a big Thank You to Lee and Cheryl for hosting it. I still am surprised I didn't steal Wrangler. He was soooooooo cute and cuddly and such a good little dog.

Now for some personal news. The timing is a little tight here and I wish that this article was due next week so I had a full answer. Tomorrow, 5/1/08, I am being flown out to Tulsa, OK for a third interview with a company out there. The indicators would seem to say that a third interview, that they are willing to fly me out for, as long as I don't screw things up, would be the one that the job is offered at. The problem is that it would mean I need to move to Tulsa.

Of course, in a lot of ways, that would suck. I have all of you, and many, many more friends, not to mention family, that I would be 1500 miles from. Then there is the issue that Tulsa doesn't get any real snow on average, so snowmobiling would be done. But, I could ride the Harley a lot more during the year! On the positive side of moving, maybe it's time for a change in my life. I look forward to the chance to raise the kids in the mid-west. Not that NH is bad, but something about the legendary personality and kindness of the country lifestyle is intriguing.

Therefore, I don't know if there will be BS From Bill next year. I don't know if I will be trying to sell the sled. At this time I just don't have any answers. I want to work again, I like the people I've talked to at this company and the job sounds great. I will understand if you don't want me to get the job, but wish me luck none the less, please.

No more BS for now, until next season (?),
